How we can help you:

Jayhawk Area Agency on Aging can help you get access to the services available to Kansas seniors. There are options and solutions that meet your special needs to maintain your independence so it is possible to remain in your home. Information and Assistance provides seniors and caregivers with information about available community resources and/or referrals to particular service programs or agencies.

Our Information Departments can help you navigate through the maze of services available to you.

JAAA Mission Statement

Jayhawk Area Agency on Aging, Inc. and the Kansas Department on Aging and Disability Services advocates on aging issues, builds community partnerships and implements programs within Shawnee, Jefferson, and Douglas counties to help seniors live independent and dignified lives.

Jayhawk Area Agency on Aging is a 501 C(3) Non-Profit Corporation. Private donations are welcomed and appreciated.

Jayhawk Area Agency on Aging receives funds from U.S. Health & Human Services Administration on Aging, Kansas Department on Aging and Disability Services; Douglas, Jefferson, and Shawnee Counties; and the cities of Topeka and Lawrence, Kansas.

Jayhawk Area Agency on Aging, Inc. does not discriminate on the basis of race, color or national origin, sex, age, disability or religion. If you feel you have been discriminated against, you have the right to file a complaint with Jayhawk Area Agency on Aging.

Contact 785-235-1367 or TDD/TTY: 800-776-3777.

2910 SW Topeka Boulevard
Topeka, Kansas 66611

Phone 785-235-1367 or 800-798-1366
Check us out on the web www.jhawkaaa.org
Ask us

Jayhawk Area Agency on Aging Information & Assistance (I&A) offers answers to all of your aging-related questions and access to the help you and your loved ones need.

I&A Specialists provide information on programs, eligibility criteria, availability, and the procedures to obtain particular services in order to inform you of your options and make the best decisions for your unique situation. Regardless of your needs and situation, I&A is available to educate you on your available options and to empower you by providing unbiased referrals to local resources.

I&A is available Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. to help you find the tools and services needed to age well at home.

Information and Assistance

When you call the Agency on Aging, you are connected with an experienced program coordinator. We'll listen to your needs and provide you with information you can use.

Outreach

The Agency on Aging welcomes opportunities to meet older adults in their home communities. Look for us at health fairs, local events, grocery stores--anywhere older adults go, we go too.

Outreach Programs

Annual Senior Fairs
Health and wellness activities and workshops
Fraud prevention workshops
Emergency preparedness workshops
Public Benefits Information
Low Income Energy Assistance Program
Food Assistance Programs
Franchise Fee Utility Refund
Snow Removal Program
Christmas Bureau assistance for Homebound Clients

* Limited availability. Call for more information.